From:	John Sieger
To:	DNR Racine Diversion Comments
Subject:	Re: Foxconn
Date:	Friday, March 09, 2018 8:07:57 AM

To whom it may concern,

Diverting water from the Great Lakes to Foxconn is a bad idea. I am opposed to it for many reasons. The main one is how the water will be returned. The waste product from a giant tech plant like this will not be be clean, drinkable water. By caving to special interests and corporate influence you are setting a bad precedent that is sure to be aped all around the Great Lakes.

John Sieger

siegeronsongs@gmail.com

414-520-5355