Project Description Summary

Forest County is looking to develop new ATV/UTV Trails located on Sokaogon Chippewa Trust and Fee Lands. Forest County has developed a Memorandum of Agreement with the Sokaogon Chippewas Tribe to help ATV/UTV trail connectivity in the county but also provide more off road opportunities in Forest County. Trails are already existing but will need a little work to be in good shape. Forest County is looking for funding of these trails to brush and do dirt work and also to keep them maintained to Wisconsin DNR Trail Standards and Sokaogon Chippewa Tribe Standards. Trails will be maintained through contract by Forest County ATV Association and if possible Sokaogon Chippewa Tribe may maintain portions of the trail. This trail will be open to the public Spring, Summer, Fall.

☒ I certify that all maintenance land use agreements are on file.

Trail Project Detailed Description

Two sections of trails will be developed/maintained by Forest County ATV Association located on Sokaogon Chippewa Tribe Trust and Fee lands. These trails are already established and are in need of funding assistance to do brushing, dirt work for BMP purpose. With opening these trails it will create more off-road riding experience in County but also provide connectivity to areas without having to ride on town roads.
