Project Description Summary

This project replaces deteriorated timber decking and railings on an existing recreation trail bridge on the White River State Trail in Walworth County. A large opening in the granular surface at the bridge deck has revealed significant deck deterioration beneath the granular surface, as well as aging outer railings. The project includes full removal of granular material and fabric, installation of timber deck boards or equivalent decking material, removal and replacement of the railing system, and restoration of the limestone granular surface after the new deck is installed. No changes to bridge width, alignment, or structural members will occur. Work restores safe passage for trail users and maintains existing permitted conditions.

I certify that all maintenance land use agreements are on file.
