

The Center for Creative 2018 Land Recycling in 2018

"CCLR provides vital information for the socioeconomic redevelopment of our urban centers."

- Mayor Jesus G. Márquez, Luqillo, Puerto Rico

"Thanks to input from experts in CCLR's network, we were able to craft a much more substantive and impactful Request for Expression of Interest to attract investment in our catalytic properties. CCLR strikes again!"

- Christian Mercurio, Mohawk Valley EDGE, New York

Our mission is to promote the sustainable, equitable and responsible reuse of underutilized and environmentally-impacted properties. We educate, advocate, assist and convene stakeholders to revitalize communities through land recycling.

2018 has been a remarkable year for CCLR: we reached more people in more places than ever before and established ourselves as the premier redevelopment technical assistance provider in the United States.

2018 Achievements

- Organized regional and state-wide recycling conferences:
  - Carson, California
  - Camden & Sayreville, New Jersey
  - Guyanabo, Puerto Rico
  - Albany, Syracuse & Westbury, New York
  - Yakima, Washington
  - Maui County, Hawaii
- Released three educational videos.
- Launched the National Economic Development Mentoring Network.
- Convened the first National Brownfields Leadership Summit in Washington, D.C. with participants from 25 different states.

Workshops 17 hosted 1,305 attendees

Affiliated Events

16 presentations

serving 842 attendees

Webinars 11 hosted 1,358 attendees

Grant Funding

Reviewed 29 federal brownfield grant proposals and brought $6.65m in federal grants to 14 projects across the U.S.

Communities Served Assisted over 265 communities with individualized technical assistance

For more information visit www.cclr.org or contact Sarah Sieloff, Executive Director at sarah.sieloff@cclr.org.