

Fact Sheet – Application of the NR 700 Rules to Remediation of Contaminated Sediment

- A. General introduction and purpose of the fact sheet
- B. Legal Authority
- C. Legal Responsibility
- D. What is Sediment?
- E. Ordinary High Water Mark
- F. When is a site a “site”(NR 700 process) or alternative path
- G. Fees
- H. Discovery and Notification of Discharge – NR 706
- I. Assessment and Investigation – NR 716
  - How is this different than a NR 347 investigation?
- J. Remedial Action Options Report- Remedy Selection – NR 722
- K. Remedial Actions
  - Sediment cover vs engineering control
- L. Engineering Controls
  - O&M plan and financial assurance requirements – 292.12(2)(d)
- M. Materials Management
- N. Case Closure
  - Notice to off-site owners
- O. Off-site liability exemption
- P. Continuing Obligations – 292.12
  - Clarification of who (RP, riparian owner, etc...) has to follow requirements and comply with prohibitions on interference
- Q. Post Closure Modifications
- R. Voluntary Party Liability Exemption (possibly addressed in separate document)