The boys that left here for Isla Royelo sent a letter to Roscoe written on toilet tissue. They must be short on "tablets" up there!

Why does a certain young man we all know spend every Saturday night in Mariagotte and disappear when the trucks are ready to leave for camp. He sleeps in the overhead barrack if that is of any use to you in finding out who he is.

A lot of the L.E.M. are going home for Thanksgiving

Slim Klein, Senior Foreman, has left our company for good and Ira Poro Sago of Greenville, Mich. has taken his place. Good luck, Slim. Let's go, Sago.

Another loss to the company is Paul Durka, Moss Sergeant. Paul was undoubtedly the best Moss Steward in the CCC. He was famous for his pastries. Everyone will remember his favorite saying: "If you don't like it, go home."

Fuchs is the chief mover so far, having moved from Barrack 2 to Barrack 3 and then back to 2 inside of a week.

Four boys from the Ninth Corps Area have been transferred to this camp and the rest of the camp extend them a hearty welcome.

A large number of boys came here on transfers from Riley Creek and Blue Lake. Welcome to our happy home.

Pop Krohn has moved from B 2 to B 1 where he is the new Loader. Good luck to you, Pop!

"Nolly" Nelson returned to work after a few days enforced lay off for infatuation in his hole.

Phillip Weibel has left for a weeks leave from duty.

John C. Olden has left for good. He found a job at home and was discharged yesterday. We won't see the little "black book" on pay days now.

The boys here all getting settled in their new barracks camp. They moved last Tuesday night.
