KITCHEN NOTES!

Courtesy

In a CCC Camp men have a remarkable opportunity to improve their table manners. Despite this unusual opportunity there are very few men who have taken advantage of it to any great extent. If you are one of the many whose manners would not be correct at a social affair, "take a hold of yourself" and pay more attention to these matters that may seem trivial to you now but will prove to be a "thorn in your side" later on. Be courteous, enjoy a good congenial chat with your neighbor but be quiet about it. Don't be boastful, besides being uncouth it tends to upset your stomach and slows up proper digestion.

Appearance in the Messhall

Many men have been coming to the mess hall in the evenings strictly in a "mess". If you are one of the boys that do this, turn over a new leaf at once and come to the mess hall in a neat appearance. It will greatly improve the appearance of the company. Remember, Your food is only as good as the environment in which it is eaten.
