

[Black Brook Flowage Unnamed Feature]

Recommended Name of Feature: Black Brook Flowage

Current Name of Feature: Unnamed Feature (WBIC 2655000)

Unnamed Feature	USGS - Geographic Names Information System (GNIS)
Unnamed Feature	WDNR – Register of Waterbodies
Unnamed Flowage	WDNR - 24k Hydrology
Black Brook Flowage	County GIS
Amsterdam Slough Flowage, Black Brook Flowage	Google Maps
Unnamed Feature	USGS Topography
Black Brook Flowage, Amsterdam Slough Flowage.	Local Names

Location & Description: Located at the headwaters of Black Brook, this flowage is just south of Hwy D near the Town of Lincoln, Burnett Co. Coordinates 45.839165795713946, -92.43546162517694. There are Black Brook Flowages in Polk and Washburn Counties.

Proponent: Burnett County, Emily Moore – emoore@burnettcounty.org

Summary: This currently unnamed feature has been identified by the name of Black Brook Flowage on local maps and on Google maps. It is also called Amsterdam Slough Flowage. It lies entirely within the Amsterdam Sloughs State Wildlife Area. DNR's Dam Safety Program lists it as Amsterdam Slough Flowage in their data base. This area is currently being monitored SWIMS: 10001903, 10054150, and 10050727.

Local Opinion:

Burnett County- Proponent
Town of Lincoln -
DNR Property Supervisor - Approved

Decision: